New York, May 20.—A further advance in the stock market this morning carried prices to levels so considerably above libration of the control those prevailing earlier in the week that speculative profit taking of the kind con-stantly witnessed in the stantly witnessed in the market during Kansas City Southern pfd ... the last few months was immediately invited; and the rising movement of values in the morning and the recession that followed in the afternoon constituted the history of the stock exchange day.

During the earlier hours rumor made some headway that at the meeting of the some headway that at the meeting of the directors of the Southern Pacific Company to-day an advance would be ordered in the company's dividend rate. No such action has heretofore been expected at this time, but the idea that it was likely induced a rise of nearly two points in Southern Pacific stock.
